

For Immediate Release

March 2, 2021

CAPIC Meets with Mr. Jasraj Singh Hallan, M.P., Conservative Shadow Minister for Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship, on Canadian Immigration Matters

March 2, 2021 – The Canadian Association of Professional Immigration Consultants (“CAPIC”) met with Jasraj Singh Hallan, M.P., Conservative Shadow Minister for Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship, to discuss COVID-19's impact on Canadian immigration and immigration's role in Canada's post-pandemic recovery. Increased immigration levels and new immigration investment programs were productively explored. The role international students play in creating a stronger Canadian workforce was also discussed.

Dory Jade, CEO, CAPIC: “CAPIC prioritizes immigration as a key component of Canada's pandemic recovery efforts and is committed to working with all parties to achieve this aim. Economic capital is vital to accomplishing this goal and new immigration investment programs will ensure Canada has access to essential economic capital. The pandemic has highlighted country's evolving labour needs and international students are well suited to meet these changing demands.”

About CAPIC

The Canadian Association of Professional Immigration Consultants (CAPIC) is the professional organization representing the interests of Canadian Immigration Consultants. The organization advocates for competency, ethical conduct, and consumer protection in the immigration consulting industry.

CAPIC's mission is to lead, connect, protect, and develop the profession, serving the best interests of its members. It is the only association recognized by the Government of Canada as the voice of Canadian immigration and citizenship consultants.

CAPIC has over 3100 members and is comprised of Regulated Canadian Immigration Consultants and Canadian Immigration Lawyers.