The 16th Annual National Citizenship and Immigration Conference (NCIC) Takes Place on October 28-29, 2021 in Vancouver

October 25, 2021 – The Canadian Association of Professional Immigration Consultants (CAPIC) is pleased to announce that the 16th annual National Citizenship and Immigration Conference (NCIC or NCIC 2021) will take place on October 28 and 29, 2021 in Vancouver. The theme of this year's conference is "Make Your Mark: Evolving Practice and Expanding Opportunities."

Dory Jade, CEO, CAPIC: "CAPIC is thrilled to once again offer the industry-leading National Citizenship and Immigration Conference in-person. NCIC remains the most comprehensive conference of its kind in Canada and this year's excellent lineup of industry speakers serves to further enhance the conference's reputation as the most important conference for industry stakeholders."

NCIC 2021 features more than 60 top-level industry experts including government speakers, immigration consultants, and immigration lawyers participating in 20 panel sessions. NCIC 2021 will include discussion of key industry topics and updates making NCIC 2021 the premier conference in Canada for immigration practitioners.

About NCIC

Now celebrating its 16th year, NCIC is an annual conference for immigration practitioners. The conference's roster of senior officials from IRCC, ESDC, IRB, CBSA, and PNP, immigration consultants and immigration lawyers share knowledge and experience through a variety of panel formats.
