CAPIC Responds to New Ukraine Immigration Measures

March 3, 2022 – The Canadian Association of Professional Immigration Consultants (CAPIC) supports the recent implementation of new immigration measures for those affected by the situation in Ukraine from the Minister of Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship, the Honourable Sean Fraser, P.C., M.P.

CAPIC CEO Dory Jade: “In the Ukraine crisis situation, CAPIC’s position is to facilitate the fastest possible access to Canada’s refugee system. We’re pleased to see the prioritization of an emergency travel program and two new immigration streams for those in Ukraine or abroad. We also support retaining the current visa requirement for the government’s stated security, regulatory and operational reasons. Visa requirements ensure newcomers are cleared of any concerns which may put Canada’s security at risk. It is important that those seeking entry are processed in a safe and timely manner.”
