

For Immediate Release

CAPIC Congratulates Board of Director Appointments to CICC

March 8, 2022 – The Canadian Association of Professional Immigration Consultants (CAPIC) we are pleased to see the much-anticipated appointments by the Government of Canada of five public interest directors to the Board of Directors of the College of Immigration and Citizenship Consultants (CICC).

CAPIC CEO Dory Jade: “We welcome the additional diversity and expertise the appointed directors will bring to the CICC. It is appropriate that these appointments occur during Fraud Awareness Month, as their role will help protect immigrants and citizenship clients while improving the integrity of the immigration consulting profession in Canada.”

The College plays an integral part in protecting the public and ensuring that Regulated Canadian Immigration Consultants are licensed and competent.

CAPIC congratulates Ben Rempel, Former Assistant Deputy Minister of Immigration, Manitoba; Jennifer Henry, Senior Program Development and Strategy Lead, The United Church of Canada; Normand Beaudry, Director of International Recruitment, Université Laval, and Treasurer/Member, CALDO Consortium; Timothy D’Souza, Senior Vice President, Finance and Business Operations, Diabetes Canada; and Nicholas Summers, Former Provincial Director/CEO, Newfoundland and Labrador Legal Aid Commission.

About CAPIC

The Canadian Association of Professional Immigration Consultants (CAPIC) is the professional organization representing the interests of Canadian Immigration Consultants. The organization advocates for competency, ethical conduct, and consumer protection in the immigration consulting industry.

CAPIC’s mission is to lead, connect, protect, and develop the profession, serving the best interests of its members. It is the only association recognized by the Government of Canada as the voice of Canadian immigration and citizenship consultants.

For more information about CAPIC and its services, please visit www.capic.ca or contact communications@capic.ca.