RE: Thank you for joining CAPIC at the NCIC 2026

Dear Deputy Minister Gallivan,

On behalf of the Canadian Association of Professional Immigration Consultants (CAPIC), I would like to extend our sincere thanks for taking the time to join us at the National Citizenship and Immigration Conference (NCIC) 2026 and for meeting with the CAPIC advocacy team.

Your participation was greatly appreciated by our members and attendees. More importantly, we valued the genuine effort you made to engage in open and thoughtful conversation with immigration consultants from across the country. Your willingness to share insights, answer questions candidly, and continue discussions beyond the formal session demonstrated a meaningful commitment to dialogue and collaboration.

As immigration consultants working on the front lines with applicants, families, employers, and communities, our members benefit greatly from opportunities to better understand the realities, challenges, and priorities facing IRCC. Equally important is the opportunity for government officials to hear directly from those supporting clients through Canada's immigration system every day.

We are grateful for the openness, professionalism, and accessibility you brought to NCIC. The conversations that took place during and after your session were both informative and constructive, and they reinforced the value of continued engagement between IRCC and CAPIC.

CAPIC looks forward to ongoing collaboration as we collectively work to support a fair, effective, and trusted immigration system that serves the interests of Canada and those genuinely seeking to build their futures here.

Thank you once again for your time, your participation, and your continued service.

Sincerely,

Dory Jade, C. Dir.
