Dear Minister Hussen,

On behalf of the Canadian Association of Professional Immigration Consultants, I want to commend you, along with Minister Chagger, on your pilot project to link newcomers with jobs in the hotel industry, which will greatly benefit both new immigrants and refugees and the Canadian tourism industry. Following the announcement of IRCC's multi-year Immigration Levels Plan, it is encouraging to see improved accommodation for a greater number of newcomers in the years to come.

You may rest assured that all the resources at CAPIC's disposal, including the wealth of knowledge and experience that our members possess, are readily available should you require them. Our members can also offer pro bono consultations, as they have always done, to the refugees that your pilot project will undoubtedly benefit.

I trust that we will continue to see IRCC's outstanding commitment to bettering the lives of Canadian immigrants and refugees.

Sincerely,

Donald Igbokwe, BA Hons, MA, CIP, RCIC
President, CAPIC-ACCPI
