RE: The Canadian Association of Professional Immigration Consultants (CAPIC) Congratulates Peter Fragiskatos on Appointment as the Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada

Dear Mr. Fragiskatos:

On behalf of the Canadian Association of Professional Immigration Consultants (CAPIC), I would like to extend my sincere congratulations on your recent appointment as the Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada.

CAPIC is a major stakeholder in immigration and citizenship policy development. Our organization has forged and maintained strong relationships with all tiers of government and has been formally recognized as the leader of and advocate for immigration and citizenship consultants and the immigration consulting profession. As a leading voice in the Canadian immigration industry, we represent over 4400 immigration and citizenship consultants who assist newcomers in working, studying, visiting, or moving to Canada.

CAPIC advocates for ethical and competent immigration practice. We hold over 100 high-quality educational events for immigration consultants each year to help our members and other authorized representatives maintain the quality of their services. The most remarkable among them is the National Citizenship and Immigration Conference (NCIC), which goes beyond education and connects immigration stakeholders across the board, including government officials at all three levels of government. It has become a tradition for the Minister of Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship to be a keynote speaker at the NCIC. For your reference, here is Minister Lena Metlege Diab's greeting message on the occasion of the 2025 NCIC.

We firmly believe that immigration is a cornerstone of Canadian identity and an essential driver of the country's economy. CAPIC supports the priority of immigration in the Prime Minister's Mandate Letter. To achieve the objective of "[a]ttracting the best talent in the world to help build our economy, while returning our overall immigration rates to sustainable levels," well-designed business immigration programs are much needed. As a leader in the immigration industry, CAPIC has laid out the redesign of Canada's business immigration programs (BIPs) based on extensive research. On April 21, CAPIC published an open letter to political party leaders on page three of The Hill Times. The letter outlined key recommendations of Canada's BIPs.

I hope to arrange a meeting with you in the coming weeks to connect with you as a starting point to work with you for a better immigration system.

Sincerely,
