RE: The Canadian Association of Professional Immigration Consultants (CAPIC) Congratulates Jenna Sudds on appointment as the new Minister of Families, Children and Social Development

Dear Minister Sudds:

On behalf of the Canadian Association of Professional Immigration Consultants (CAPIC), I would like to extend sincere congratulations to you on your recent appointment as the new Minister of Families, Children and Social Development. We look forward to working with you and your team.

CAPIC represents nearly 5000 immigration and citizenship consultants who assist newcomers to work, study, visit, or move to Canada. CAPIC has forged and maintained strong relationships with all tiers of government and has been formally recognized as the leader of, and advocate for, immigration and citizenship consultants and the immigration consulting profession. CAPIC is a major stakeholder in immigration and citizenship policy development, including the Temporary Foreign Worker Program (TFWP) and Foreign Credential Recognition Program (FCRP).

CAPIC believes that immigration is a fundamental component of Canadian identity and a vital part of the country's economy. We are a leader in the immigration industry and our organization is delighted to work with you and your team on improving the TFWP, FCRP, and immigration-related matters within your purview.

Congratulations on your new appointment, and we wish you continued success in your role as Minister of Families, Children and Social Development.

Sincerely,

Dory Jade, C. Dir.
Chief Executive Officer
CAPIC-ACCPI
