Dear Ms. Lutfallah,

On behalf of the Canadian Association of Professional Immigration Consultants (CAPIC), I want to commend the CBSA's ongoing investigation of British Columbia's largest ever immigration fraud case, which has resulted in nine arrests so far.

As representative and advocate of ethical, professional immigration consultants, CAPIC condemns the selfish actions of unauthorized immigration practitioners and is pleased to see the perpetrators of these crimes brought to justice thanks to the diligence and hard work of your agency's employees.

CAPIC would be delighted to provide the CBSA with any additional help or resources, should these be required, and will continue to refer all such cases to the CBSA once they are brought to our attention.

Yours truly,

Dory Jade, C. Dir
Chief Executive Officer
