Re: Recommend replacing the name of ICCRC with CICC in the BC PNP Use of Representative Forms to reflect the legislative change

Dear Sir/Madam,

On behalf of CAPIC, I would like to bring to your attention the use of the outdated name of the former designated organization, namely the Immigration Consultants of Canada Regulatory Council (ICCRC), overseeing the practice of RCICs, in the BC PNP Use of Representative Forms. Specifically, in Section 2 of the Forms for Applicant and Employer, ICCRC is still used.

On December 9, 2020, with the coming into force of the College of Immigration and Citizenship Consultants Act, S.C. 2019, c. 29, s. 292 (the College Act), the College of Immigration and Citizenship Consultants (CICC), the regulatory body for RCICs established by the College Act, replaced the ICCRC.

I noticed that in the BC PNP guides, the name ICCRC has been replaced by CICC. I believe you are fully aware of the legislative change and therefore send this letter with the hope of assisting the BC PNP in updating the above-mentioned forms to reflect the legislative change as well as maintain consistency.

Being the sole association recognized by the Government of Canada as the voice of RCICs, CAPIC is committed to promoting the ethics and competence of our members and protecting the integrity of the RCIC profession and the Canadian immigration system. CAPIC is willing and able to assist in immigration legislation, regulation, and policy development as well as program improvements.

If we may further assist with the BC PNP, feel free to contact me.

Yours Truly,

Dory Jade, C. Dir.
